However, before calculating the subscription due we allow deductions for reasonable expenses up to a maximum of 50% of the gross figure. Expenses deducted must be wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred for the purpose of clinical practice. If we ask for your net income, we mean your gross annual income minus deductions for reasonable expenses as described above, but before tax is deducted.

Important information about monthly repayments

If you have incurred more than three CCJs against you within the last two years that have not been satisfied, you will need to choose an alternative payment option.

Payment of your MDU subscription fees by monthly repayments requires you to enter into a separate credit agreement with a third party credit provider, Premium Credit Limited. MDU Services Ltd is not the lender.

It is important that you read this section about the Premium Credit agreement carefully. You should also read the pre-contract credit information provided with the credit agreement that Premium Credit will send you. They explain the key features of the credit agreement to help you decide whether their product is suitable for your needs and financial situation.

What the loan is for

The credit agreement can be used to finance membership subscriptions and any other amounts payable for changes to, or the renewal of, your membership.

Payments

The monthly repayment you will have to pay will be dependent on your subscription and the transaction fee (referred to as interest in our letters). For specific details, please call our freephone membership helpline on 0800 716 376.

If there are changes to your subscription we will advise Premium Credit who will let you know how this affects your monthly payment schedule.

Features of the credit agreement that you should be aware of:

- You can only borrow up to your credit limit. Premium Credit may change the limit at any time.
- The agreement sets out all Premium Credit's standard charges but the only charge that applies for MDU membership is the transaction fee. Premium Credit will advise you of the amount.
- Visit themdu.com/payments to see the current transaction fee and a representative example. If you don't have access to the website, please contact the membership team for further information.
- Unless you tell Premium Credit otherwise they may communicate with you electronically using either your email address or any online portal that they set up or operate. Reducing paper is one of their green goals, so we ask that you support their environmentally friendly approach by signing your credit agreement electronically. The credit agreement is subject to English Law.

Consequences of non-payment

Failing to make a payment when it is due or if your Direct Debit Instruction is cancelled breaches the terms of the credit agreement and Premium Credit may take action to recover any outstanding amount from you. It may result in cancellation of the credit agreement and your MDU membership which is financed by it.

Right of withdrawal

You have the right to withdraw from the Premium Credit agreement before the end of 14 days, beginning with whichever is the later of the following – the day after

- the credit agreement is made;
- you receive Premium Credit's terms and conditions (and any other information which they are required to give you with those terms and conditions);
- they notify you of the Credit Limit (if they have told you what this is in the Agreement);

To exercise this right you must notify Premium Credit by emailing customer.services@pcl.co.uk or calling 0344 736 9826 or writing to them at Operations Centre, Premium Credit Limited, Ermyn House, Ermyn Way, Leatherhead, KT22 8UX.

You must pay the whole balance in full without undue delay and no later than 30 days after notifying them you wish to withdraw from the Agreement. If you do, no interest is payable on the balance. Payment must be by debit or credit card over the phone by calling the number provided above.

If you exercise your right to withdraw from the credit agreement you will need to find alternative means to pay for your MDU membership or there is a risk that it may be cancelled.

We use Premium Credit Limited, who is the lender, to finance exclusively. MDU Services Ltd are acting as the credit broker. We do not receive commission for introducing customers to them.

Data sharing

If you wish to pay your subscription fee by monthly repayments, we will pass your personal details to Premium Credit Limited in order for them to set up an agreement between you and them. The personal data we will share with Premium Credit Limited includes your contact information, date of birth and bank account details.

Before Premium Credit contacts you or accepts your application for credit, they will carry out credit-worthiness and affordability checks using your personal information to establish whether or not you are eligible to receive credit from them. These checks will leave a record on your credit file.

Further details are provided in Premium Credit's privacy policy available at premiumcredit.com/privacy-notice
